Germans Stronger Now Than in 1938, Gen. Strong Says

Warns Nations Hard Battles Lie Ahead

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12 (AP)— Army intelligence, firing a set of figures at optimism, said today that Germany and Japan are still so strong, so well stocked and situated, that if we take things too easy "we may find that our opportunity for victory has vanished."

In fact, said General George J. Strong, acting chief of the military intelligence division, in a report released on Capitol Hill, the Germans are stronger now than in 1938 and the real fight against the Japanese is only starting.

Production Aids U.S.

"Our main advantage in the struggle is our ability to produce weapons," he said. "If, through unwillingness to face facts, we give up this advantage, if through over-optimism we slow down production and relax our efforts, we may find that our opportunity for victory has escaped us permanently."

Strong's review, stacking up point by point the things still blocking the roads to Berlin and Tokyo, previously had been given to House members in secret session.

It presented the same danger-in-relaxing case he argued last September before a conference of industrial and labor leaders and newspaper executives, and its release saw and in detail, gave emphasis through repetition.

Starting with Germany, here is what Strong emphasized, on the basis of reports to military intelligence officers:

Strong's Opinions

Fighting manpower — The Nazis have more than 300 well trained divisions. (At full strength this would mean 4,500,000 men.) Russia is keeping three-fourths of Hitler's army busy.

Production manpower and womanpower — Employment in the Reich's essential war industries stands at 35,000,000 now as compared with 23,000,000 in 1939.

Food—Supplies are far better than in the last war.

New weapons — German inventiveness has turned up many new models of tanks, self-propelled guns, rocket guns and some other equipment better than the Allies'.

Oil — Stocks have decreased but Germany can lay hands on more than enough. The Ploesti raid was a severe, but not fatal, blow.

Other important fields — An excellent position on steel, heavy output of coal, and rubber production soon to meet almost all needs for 200,000 tons of synthetic a year.

Nazi Airpower Weaker

General Strong named the German air force as the weakest link in Hitler's chain about Europe, but even here he cautioned that aircraft production gained twenty-five per cent during the first half of 1943 and that while losses since July have exceeded the rate of production, the heavy attrition rate will have to be maintained.

And he added that while Ham-

"Armed Services Day" Planned for Dec. 7

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12 (AP)— December 7, 1943, the second anniversary of the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor, is designated "Armed Services Honor Day" in a joint resolution upon which the Senate completed legislative action today.

The resolution, which now goes to the White House, requests the president to issue a proclamation commanding the observance of that day in honor of all men and women who have served or are now serving in the armed forces.

It also urges that counties and municipalities arrange appropriate ceremonies.

The 1,700-ton Beatty went down Nov. 6.

Roosevelt Insists upon Subsidies To Combat Inflation, Says Jones

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Nov. 12 (AP)— War Food Administrator Marvin Jones told the National Grange convention today that the Roosevelt administration is standing pat on its anti-inflation program of holding down consumer food prices through the use of government subsidies.

The Grange has expressed bitter opposition to such subsidies. It contends that they are equally as inflationary as higher consumer food prices based upon farm production costs.

Addressing the seventy-seventh annual meeting of the farm organization, the food administrator assured 1,000 delegates and visitors that it was the government's wish that farmers receive adequate return for next year's crops. He said, however, that the government desired to continue use of subsidies, which he asserted, had proved "highly successful" this year.

Some Grange leaders had hoped that Jones would offer grounds for settlement of the long-pending controversies over subsidies.

Opposing subsidies is a powerful farm bloc in Congress and several national farm organizations, including, of course, the Grange.

Jones's speech was given a political interpretation by some of the Grange officials.

GERMANS FIGHTING FURIOUSLY AGAINST AMERICAN FIFTH ARMY

Rain and Snow Help Nazis, but Clark's Forces Seize Commanding Position in Mignano Section

By NOLAND NORGAARD

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, ALGIERS, Nov. 12 (AP)—Alighted by a cold rain in the lower areas and by snow in the Apennine mountains, German troops are counterattacking fiercely and continually in an effort to regain strategic heights won by Lt. Gen. Mark W. Clark's Fifth Army fighters near Mignano on the enemy's strong-fortified "winter line" across Italy.

Every Nazi thrust has been thrown back with losses in killed and captured. Allied headquarters reported today, and Clark's Americans have pushed on amid the frightful weather conditions to seize one more commanding feature on the slopes of Mt. Camino near Mignano.

Demolitions Continue

This, however, was the only Allied gain reported from yesterday's fighting, which consisted mainly of clashes between rival patrols the length of the ninety-mile front. Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery's Eighth Army exchanged artillery fire with the enemy across the Sangro river near the Adriatic, but for the first time in weeks reported no advances. Enemy mines and demolitions continued to plague the Allies.

A German communiqué claimed that a powerful counterattack had driven Clark's troops from a hill position south of Mignano. "American troops west of the Volturno, despite heavy losses, are continuing for days their unsuccessful attacks on our hill positions," the communiqué added.

Marigny Defies Nassau Critics

His Trial Boring He Tells Press

By JANE EADS

NASSAU, BAHAMAS, Nov. 12 (AP)—Alfred de Marigny quietly defied today the murder trial jury which recommended that he be deported from this British colony—and at the same time cleared him of the charge that he murdered his pretty wife's father, Sir Harry Oakes.

"I'm staying in Nassau," he told reporters who had written about his twenty-two-day trial in the Bahamas supreme court.

Interviewed at Home

With him as he talked at his Victoria avenue cottage was his wife, Nancy, radiant with happiness on the first day of freedom her husband has known since he was arrested July 9.

The Democratic committee also will probably meet in January to arrange for the party's convention.

Heretofore, it has been customary to hold these site-selecting meetings in Washington. Spangler explained that Chicago was chosen for the Republican committee gathering because of the city's central location.

The wartime transportation difficulties which dictated selection of Chicago for the committee meeting will also figure in choosing the convention city. Because of them, party leaders may be less inclined to consider feelers they have received from Philadelphia and Atlantic City than others from Cleveland and Detroit.

"You'll have to ask my friends about that."

His Trial "Boring"

He said he was "tried ten percent for killing Sir Harry Oakes and ninety percent for marrying his daughter."

"My trial interesting?" he continued.

"No, it was boring." Again he gave an expressive shrug.

"It got me out of jail each day—and jail is no place to go, my friends," he told reporters.

De Marigny said the Oakes slaying was something out of my conception, it has twenty or thirty angles."

"It could have been for blackmail, or for many things," he added. "None was investigated. When I was arrested the case was closed."

German Forces Land on Leros

Heavy Fighting On Small Island

By WILLIAM McGAFFIN

CAIRO, Nov. 12 (AP)—German forces made a landing on the British-held Aegean island of Leros early this morning and heavy fighting was in progress with the British and pro-American garrison fighting side-by-side to dislodge the attackers.

A number of German landing craft were destroyed or damaged by the defenders as several landing parties were thrown back into the sea, said an Allied communiqué. Others, however, secured beachheads, and these "detachments are being dealt with," the communiqué added.

Later reports said the fighting had flared into a grim battle with the British seeking to oust the Germans from their main landings at Pasta DiSotto and Appetici, both on the northeast corner of the island.

It was the second German attack against the island, valuable as an airbase, in eight days. Landings attempts were successfully repulsed last Nov. 4 and 5.

The German attacks apparently were based on Calinos, an island between Leros and the German-occupied island of Cos. British planes reported bombing a concentration of German landing barges near this island yesterday.

Leros was taken over by the British on Sept. 20 after the Italian capitulation.

The Grange's speech was given a political interpretation by some of the Grange officials.

Green Angered By Statement Of WLB Group

Denies Government Needs More Powers

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12 (AP)—The suggestion from three public members of the War Labor Board that the government may need more powers to force labor union compliance with its orders brought a bitter protest today from President William Green of the American Federation of Labor.

"Such statements as these," Green said in a letter to Chairman William H. Davis of the WLB, "make it increasingly difficult for labor to participate in the work of the National War Labor Board."

They said, "You and your associates have rendered a great disservice to labor and to the public through publication of said expressed opinions."

Threatens Reprisals

As for the flat recommendation from employer members of the WLB for new laws to "require responsibility of union," Green said he did not believe they represented the views of industry as a whole. If industry could ask "compulsory legislation against labor," he said, "labor could ask in return for forced and compulsory legislation against industry."

The question whether the government needs additional authority in dealing with unions was raised by Davis, WLB Vice Chairman George W. Taylor, and Dr. Frank Graham, public member, in an opinion issued in connection with the coal case.

New Crisis Hinted

They said it was possible the Ikes-Lewis coal wage agreement may have to be amended in the light of findings as to actual underground travel by coal miners. If so, they said, this might lead to a new coal crisis since John L. Lewis, the miners' president, has repeatedly defied the board.

Then they added this paragraph which drew the particular ire of Green:

"The weeks which lie ahead will be a crucial period for organized labor. Legislative sanctions more thorough-going than now exist may be required unless organized labor itself demonstrates from now on its determination to accept the bitter with the sweet, and to comply with the orderly processes of government which have been set up to cope with wartime conditions."

Davis, Taylor and Graham, after reading Green's letter, issued this comment:

Board Members Reply

"The reference in the paragraph to the future, not the past.

"Organized labor, except for the United Mine Workers, has had an excellent record in its patriotic co-operation with the management for all out production and in its acceptance of wage controls. It is our counsel and most earnest injunction that the Lewis defiance not be an example, which, if followed, would require legislation not only more thorough going but, in its possible features, unfair to the labor movement and unwise for the war effort."

Kill Many Germans

Soviet troops, fighting northeast of Kerch, in an assault on the blockaded Crimea, smashed a Nazi flotilla trying to evacuate the beaten Germans and sent them to their death by drowning. On land, 1,500 German bodies were left strewn on the battlefield.

Soviet forces also captured a huge quantity of equipment—twenty-six guns, fourteen mortars, seventy machineguns, more than 1,500 rifles and other war material—and took many prisoners in the Kerch peninsula battle, the war bulletin said.

The Soviet airforce, operating in conjunction with land forces, destroyed several tanks, twenty field guns, and 100 trucks carrying troops.

In the Zhitomir thrust the Russians were only seventy-five miles from the prewar Polish border.

Soviet forces were in position for a direct assault on Zhitomir. They crossed the Teteriv river yesterday and captured Radomyshl, eight miles farther up the river from Korosten.

A study to determine the amount of underground travel in the coal mines was proposed by the WLB when it approved the agreement worked out by Lewis and Secretary of Interior Ikes, operator of the mines for the government. The board should have such data, a majority said, before acting on any contract between the union and the owners superseding the government agreement.

The Soviet airforce was making steady progress toward Korosten, another rail junction northwest of Kiev, taking the town of Lyakhovaya.

NLRB Asks Court for Right To Extend Powers to Utility Company in State

BALTIMORE, Nov. 12 (AP)—The National Labor Relations Board's petition for enforcement of its order against the Baltimore Transit Company was heard and taken under consideration today by three judges of the United States Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals in the first attempt by the NLRB to extend its powers to a utility company operating within a state.

The Transit Company and the Maryland Public Service Commission contended in briefs that the NLRB move threatened usurpation of state regulatory power over rates and services, as well as labor relations.

The order of the board, issued in February, 1943, demands reinstatement of ten former employees, requires the company to cease "unfair labor practices," to reimburse employees for dues in an independent union "checked off" by the company after the labor complaint was filed June 2, 1942, and to re-establish the Act.

Independent union which formerly claimed to represent a majority of the workers.

Company attorneys contend that as inasmuch as the regional director of the NLRB had in 1937 refused jurisdiction in a matter involving the company, the board was not privileged to act in the case.

However, NLRB attorney Earl Shawe declared the company came within the National Labor Relations Act by reason of its handling of "the inflow of interstate commerce."

Senior Judge John J. Parker of Charlotte, N. C., and Judges Morris A. Soper of Baltimore and Armand M. Dohie of Charlottesville, Va., heard the case. The judges recommended company attorneys that the company receive equipment, gasoline and oil, electric power and other materials through interstate commerce and therefore was subject to the National Labor Relations Board Act.

As a result of the full compliance, the governor continued, he was released from all obligations of his parole in January, 1942.

The governor stated that Lawson had remained under the supervision of the department of parole and probation, and had complied with all conditions contained in his parole.

Lawson was convicted on the charge in January, 1939, in the criminal court of Baltimore city, and he was sentenced by the late Judge Joseph N. Ulman to serve three years.

O'Connor who paroled the man in November, 1940, said Lawson had remained under the supervision of the department of parole and probation, and had complied with all conditions contained in his parole.

As a result of the full compliance, the governor continued, he was released from all obligations of his parole in January, 1942.

The governor stated that Lawson had remained under the supervision of the department of parole and probation, and had complied with all conditions

Legion Observes Armistice Day

WESTERNPORT, Nov. 12.—Kelly-Mansfield Post No. 52, American Legion and Legion Auxiliary, held a joint Armistice day celebration last night.

Berdichev on the rail line to Warsaw repulsed German counterattacks of infantry and tanks, the war bulletin said.

The Russians, supported by newly landed tanks, mopped up several more fortified Nazi strongholds on the Kerch peninsula where the town of Kerch was reportedly being burned by the Germans in the face of swift Soviet thrusts across the straits from Taman.

Red Army Reinforced

Dozens of Russian ships, crossing from Taman every night, were bringing up more men and supplies for the already firmly entrenched Red army men, Pravda said.

Germans and Romanians were consolidated in the hills around Kerch and pouring heavy fire into Russian ranks but the Soviet artillery gradually was silencing them.

Both sides were using strong air forces but Russian Stormoviks and Black Sea fliers held the initiative.

The Germans reported a Russian attempt to cross the Siwash sea on the north eastern Crimean coast and said the Russians were wiped out after close quarter fighting.

In an area southwest of Gomel near Rechitsa, the Russians extended their bridgeheads on the right bank of the Dnieper by capturing several populated places.

Head for Key Point

Moscow dispatches said the drive was heading for the picturesque White Russian city of Kalinovichi, a key point on the Leningrad-Odessa railway. The town is a junction also for the Gomel-Poland railway and highly important to German plans.

Capt. Ludwig Sertorius, Berlin radio commentator, said the Russians were stubbornly fighting for a large scale break-through in this area as the Russians drove massed infantry and tank forces alternately west and south of Kiev against the German line.

The Ukrainian battle was a fight for communications, with the major target the Leningrad-Odessa railway. When this is cut the entire German system will be crippled although they still have numerous routes out of Russia and ample routes for defense and withdrawal.

Reconnaissance also brought out that Japanese aircraft strength, which was approaching 300 before this latest assault, had been considerably reduced the following day.

In a special statement, General MacArthur's spokesman said the "greater part of the Japanese air effort now apparently being used to support the situation on his Wewak-Rabaul front."

Wewak is on Northeastern New Guinea, approximately 300 miles up the coast from the Huon peninsula where General MacArthur's ground forces had positions only seventy miles away from the west tip of New Britain. Rabaul is on New Britain's northeastern tip.

It was felt here that the German decision to destroy Leghorn's sea facilities was inspired at least partly by the fact that the port, though nearly 250 miles from the present ground fighting, is only fifty seven miles from the island of Corsica. At that short range, Allied fighters easily could cover naval forces if the Allies chose to attack Leghorn.

Liberators of the new fifteenth air force sustained their campaign to isolate German troops in Italy from their sources of supplies and reinforcements beyond the Alps. One of their principal targets yesterday was a ballbearing factory at Anney in southeastern France—the fourth such target in Axis territory to be bombed recently. The other principal attack was aimed at the already-strained mainline railway from France at Antioch on the French Riviera, fifteen miles west of Cannes.

It was not any more cheered up by the Japanese situation, summarizing it:

The Japanese fleet is still in being, we have yet to reach any main line of resistance, geography is all in the enemy's favor, his morale is good and there are sufficient supplies of all but a few commodities to carry on a long war.

He found one good thing: due to Allied attrition Japan's shipping situation is getting worse.

"The speech shows that the administration recognizes that it has lost the farm vote in 1944. It has decided to make a strong bid for the consumer vote."

Referring to differences over the subsidiary issue, Jones told the convention that, regardless of the outcome, he intended to use whatever tools were given him to obtain needed maximum production of food.

"I would not want returning soldiers to say that I balked on the job because I did not get my way," he said.

This remark later brought from Albert H. Goss, National Grange master, the assurance that his organization—and farmers—would do their utmost regardless of whether the subsidy program won or lost.

Bomb Bottleneck

Coupled with these two crippling blows to German efforts to keep the Nazi armies in Italy supplied was the Wednesday daylight Flying Fortress attack from Mediterranean airfields on the railway bottleneck of Bolzano just below the strategic Brenner Pass through the Alps from Austria to Italy.

In addition to these major heavy operations, the British bomber command last night once more sent 400-mph Mosquitos over Berlin—the first time since Oct. 18—and others attacked Hanover and objectives in the industrial Ruhr valley.

From all these operations seven RAF bombers were missing, giving the RAF a total loss for the month to date of 26 bombers in three major assaults. All of the Liberators returned safely to their Mediterranean bases from the raid on the Cannes area, which they made unscathed.

Connolly, displeased by the vote, told reporters he thought the chairman ought to put a big black wreath on the committee room door.

In restoring full civil rights to Lawson, O'Conor said:

"The ends of justice do not require that a person once convicted shall forever be denied the opportunity to rehabilitate himself. The primary purpose of executive clemency is to encourage exemplary conduct, when a person's record justifies it and when there is definite indication that the individual will not return to the pursuit of wrongdoing."

Breakdown of Vote

Voting for the bill in committee were seven Democrats—Chairman Van Nuys (Ind.), McCarran (Nev.), Chandler (Ky.), Kilgore (W. Va.), Murdock (Utah), McFarland (Ariz.) and Wheeler (Mont.)—and five Republicans—Danaher (Conn.), Wiley (Mich.), Langer (N. D.), Ferguson (Mich.) and Wherry (Neb.). Democratic Senators Hatch (N.M.), Connally (Tex.), O'Mahoney (Wyo.) and Andrews (Fla.) lined up with Republicans along the measure, while Republicans Austin (Va.) and Revercomb (W. Va.) voted for it.

Connally, displeased by the vote, told reporters he thought the chairman ought to put a big black wreath on the committee room door.

Van Nuys conceded that the bill faced an almost certain filibuster, and he wondered out loud how such a move would be received by the country in the midst of war.

Failing that, officials here are confident that they will make the hard road of invasion much less difficult to follow.

FROSTBURG, Nov. 18—"Making the Most of Meat" is the subject for the November Health for Victory club meetings, which have been conducted here for several months, under direction of Miss Katherine W. Close. These meetings are designed to show how other "Basic 7" foods can be used as meat alternatives in easy-to-prepare dishes and to enlist the home maker in the "Food Fights for Freedom" movement.

The meetings will be as follows: Canteen Corps—Wednesday, 1:30 p.m.; Consolidated Coal Company, Thursday, 7:30 p.m.; Potomac Edison Company, Monday, Nov. 27, 7:30 p.m. A special set of recipes "The Cookie Jar Goes To Camp" which has been compiled by Katherine W. Close will be distributed. These are cookie recipes ideal for sending the boys at camp.

Married in Rectory

Miss Nora Mae Quinn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Quinn, Bowery street, and Eugene John DeMichele, this city, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael DeMichele, Washington, former residents, were married Wednesday evening in the rectory of St. Michael's Catholic church by the Rev. Francis E. Montgomery. The attendants were Miss Betty Mates and John Serra.

The bride wore a street length gown of soldier blue crepe, with a corsage of gardenias. Miss Matese wore a brown coat suit with a corsage of gardenias.

A reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Burl. Mrs. DeMichele, mother of the bridegroom, was here for the wedding ceremony.

Men and Missions

Several churches in Frostburg will observe "Men and Missions" Sunday, tomorrow which will be the thirteenth annual observance of the movement. The popularity of the observance can be seen by the growth of the number of cities which have set this date aside for this emphasis, in 1932, 640 cities; in 1937, 1,317 and in 1942, 2,677 cities.

Schools To Open
At 9:30 o'Clock*Change Will Be Effective
Nov. 15 to March 31,
Rathbun Announces

OAKLAND, Nov. 12—Beginning Monday morning, November 15, and continuing until Friday evening, March 31, all schools of the county are to open in the morning at 9:30 o'clock instead of 9, and close one-half hour later in the afternoon, it was announced by F. E. Rathbun, county superintendent.

The schools will continue in session the same actual number of hours for instructional purpose as has been in effect since opening of school, Rathbun said, and the noon lunch is to be as near as possible set at one hour.

The change is made, he said, so that bus children do not have to walk to their bus stations before daylight, and so that many of the farm students may be given time to do their chores at home before leaving for school. War time, which has advanced the clock one hour ahead of sun time, is the cause, as farm animals still let nature take her course and begin their day according to the sun.

Woodmen Meet

With 185 members of the Woodmen of the World Society in Garrett county in the armed forces of the nation, a special meeting in their honor was held in the K. of P. Hall, Oakland, last evening, November 9.

Approximately 200 members, wives and friends representing lodges from Friendsville, Grantsville, Mt. Lake Park, Swanton, McHenry, Bittinger, Oakland and Crellin, were present.

Walter W. Dawson, Oakland, was master of ceremonies. James C. Forman and Floyd Carskadon, of the W.O.W. uniform rank of Crellin, presented the colors after which the group gave the pledge of allegiance and sang the Star Spangled Banner.

Following the invocation by Rev. Minor Sprague, pastor of the Oakland Methodist church, Neil C. Fraley, state's attorney, gave a welcoming address which was responded to by H. H. Gainer, state manager of West Virginia. A reading, "Your Flag and My Flag," was given by Miss Helen Shaffer, Crellin. Entertainment was furnished by a quartet composed of Cecil Smith, Jesse J. Ashby, Herbert Leighton, Mr. Sprague accompanied at the piano by William Gibson.

Spencer Graham, state manager of Maryland and the District of Columbia, gave the roll call of camp members in the armed forces and made brief remarks. Of the 185 Woodmen in the service, Verl Edwards is known to be a prisoner of the Japs, Mark Schaefer a prisoner of the Germans, and Marshall Durst to have been accidentally killed in England. All are from Grantsville. Sterling C. Holston, assistant field manager of the W.O.W., of Omaha, Neb., delivered the principal address on present conditions and the outlook for the future. Other speakers included the Rev. C. W. Fraker, McHenry; and Mrs. Paul Taylor, Oakland, Red Cross representative. Refreshments were served by the Tau Phi Lambda sorority of the Woodmen Circle, Carnation Grove No. 3.

Club Meets

HYNDMAN, Pa., Nov. 12—The Wills Creek Home Economics Club of Hyndman met Nov. 10 at the home of Mrs. Howard R. Cook. Miss Mary E. Prettyman, county agricultural agent, and Miss Florence Howard, county club agent, announced.

During the past year 172 local neighborhood leaders have assisted the extension agents in carrying out the food production program in Mineral county. These leaders will be given an award for their services in meeting its food production goal.

Assisting the local Extension agents in the meeting will be Herman Bowers, district agent, Extension Service, Morgantown, and Miss Gladys Wasmuth, extension home management specialist, Morgantown.

The program will consist of reports of the achievements in 1943 and plans for the 1944 food production program. All neighborhood leaders are urged to attend the meeting and receive their award.

Aronhalt Is Hurt

J. E. Aronhalt, justice of the peace for New Creek district, fell this afternoon as he was going from the court house to his office across Armstrong street. He was taken to his home. After an examination Dr. T. T. Huffman stated that the extent of the injuries could not be determined immediately. There is some injury about the hips, which may require an X-ray to detect what the injuries are. He was resting comfortably later in the afternoon. Justice Aronhalt is well up in seventy, and though not of robust health he has been able to take care of his official duties.

LaSalle Closes Football Season With 18 to 0 Victory over Keyser

Play of Explorer Line Features Contest; Tornado Gains Only 52 Yards

The LaSalle High Explorers closed their 1943 football season at the Fort Hill stadium last night by defeating the Keyser (W. Va.) High Golden Tornado eleven, 18-0. In a game featured by the stellar defensive and offensive play of the Blue and Gold forward wall.

In presenting their coach, Phil Carolan, who will enter military service next week, with a victory as a farewell gift, the Explorers outplayed the Tornado, which had been expected to give the locals quite a tussle, in every department.

LaSalle, gaining consistently on end runs and through the tackles, also batted 1,000 in passing, completing all three of its tosses. While Explorer backs were running up 234 yards on ground plays, the line was limiting the West Virginians to twenty-nine yards by rushing.

The Explorers racked up the first of three touchdowns early in the second quarter when Tommy Geatz legged it forty yards behind good interference to cross the Keyser goal standing up. In the third period, LaSalle put together two more six-pointers with only a few minutes separating the scores, Francis "Scooter" Passarelli making one from three yards out and Tommy Geatz passing to Joe Carter for the other.

One-Man Show

In the opening stanza, an Explorer drive from the LaSalle thirty-seven was halted on the Keyser eleven, the visitors holding for downs, and after the final play of the quarter—a punt by Keyser's Robert Broome which was returned nineteen yards to the Toronto forty-five by Tommy Geatz—Carolans crew began another march, this time one paying off early in the second stanza.

Tommy Geatz made it a one-man show, totting the ball the entire distance on three attempts. After gaining five yards on two line plays, he slashed through right tackle and getting some excellent blocking, dashed across the Keyser goal behind two teammates after a sprint of forty yards. His pass intended for the extra point was blocked.

Keyser, which didn't register a first down until late in the third quarter, punted on fourth down following the kickoff and LaSalle, after putting together a pair of first downs, one the result of a penalty, was finally stopped when a bad pass from center resulted in a loss of twenty-five yards.

Explorers Score Again

Taking the kickoff opening the last half, the Explorers marched to their second touchdown with Tommy Geatz and Passarelli sparking the attack. LaSalle used sixteen plays in the steady drive with Passarelli touring left end for the final three yards on fourth down. Tommy Geatz's pass for the point was intercepted.

The Tornado, after taking the kickoff on its twenty-three, moved the first down sticks for the first time when Jack Dorsey went around end for fourteen yards but on the next play, Broome fumbled and Tommy Geatz recovered for LaSalle on the Keyser forty-six to set up the final touchdown.

"Doc" Daugherty failed to gain at least guar about a fifteen-yard penalty against Keyser placed the ball on the twenty-nine. On the next play, Broome fumbled and Tommy Geatz recovered for LaSalle on the Keyser forty-six to set up the final touchdown.

Northwestern's Wildcats Geared For Irish Upset

Notre Dame Seeks Eighth Victory before Sellout Crowd

CHARLES DUNKLEY

EVANSTON, Ill., Nov. 12 (AP)—Chapter eight in the story of the greatest Notre Dame football team since Knute Rockne's undefeated and untied eleven of 1930 will be written before a sellout crowd of 48,500 tomorrow when the undefeated and untied Irish play Northwestern—a team geared to the highest possible degree for an upset.

Notre Dame's seven victims this season will say it can't be done, and even the odds-makers like the Irish by twenty to twenty-one points—but that itself is a tribute to these Northwestern Wildcats, who have lost only one game all season and have one of football's finest passers and all-around players in Halfback Otto Graham.

A Few Statistics

The smallest number of points to which the Irish have been limited in charging to the position of the nation's No. 1 team is the twenty-six which they rolled up on a great army eleven last Saturday. The most any team has scored on Notre Dame is thirteen—by Georgia Tech, against whom the Irish amassed their highest scoring total, fifty-five points.

Notre Dame can go without Angelo Bertelli, the new marine. Coach Frank Leahy knows that now, after the splendid way in which eighteen-year-old Johnny Lujack conducted himself against Army last week.

Jean Katherine Johnson, WAC, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. I. L. Pitt, Georgia Tech, Michigan, Wisconsin, Illinois, and Navy. With Lujack, the Irish battered Army. They have to win this game with Northwestern and two more, with the Iowa Seawharks and Great Lakes, to finish the season with a perfect record.

Irish Line Is Difference

While the Irish have four great backs in Lujack, Creighton Miller, Julius Rykovich and Jim Melo, and fine replacements, Northwestern must rely almost entirely on Graham's passing arm which hardly assures the Wildcats of a close score, let alone a victory.

If the durable Otto goes like he did against a weak Wisconsin team last week, when he scored four touchdowns, passed for a fifth and kicked three extra points, the Wildcats can make a game of it. The catch is, Wisconsin's line scarcely compares with Notre Dame's magnificent wall—and that is expected to keep the Irish victory string going.

Romney Gridmen Close with Win Over Handley Hi

Pioneers Register 20-13 Victory; Martin Runs 85 Yards To Score

WINGCHESTER, Va., Nov. 12—The Romney (W. Va.) High Pioneers, defeated only once this season, closed their 1943 campaign here this afternoon by pounding out a 20-13 victory over the Handley High Judges.

Although the Judges never held the lead, they were never far behind and were in the game from start to finish. Romney shoved across a touchdown in the second period but Handley came back to score in the third stanza. In a thrilling final heat, the Judges sandwiched a touchdown between two Pioneer scores.

Frank Martin registered the first Romney six-pionter from fifteen yards out and Junior Hamilton plucked the point. Handley's third-period tally was scored by Lewis RE...Ansel.

Union Industrial Section of Fund Drive To Meet

Organized Labor Leaders To Discuss Plans for Local Campaign

A meeting of the Union Industrial section of the combined National War Fund and Community Chest drive will be held at 4 p.m. Sunday in Central Y.M.C.A., campaign officials announced yesterday.

The session has been called by William C. Walsh, general chairman of the drive, with the co-operation of Harry A. Porch, representing the railroad brotherhoods, who is chairman of the Union Industrial section.

Industry chairman representing the various locals of the different organized groups who are participating in the project have been invited to attend the meeting by Porch. C. E. Stutzman, of the Teamsters union and representing the A.P.O.F.L. who is vice chairman of the section; William Morgan, representing mangle and brick and clay workers; Horace B. Davis, representing the Voice of Labor and CIO; John G. Thomas, representing Local 1874, Textile Workers Union of America; and William H. Frazer, representing the Typographical union.

Labor's First Attempt

Campaign officials pointed out yesterday that this is the first time organized labor has undertaken to set up a comprehensive campaign soliciting program and added that leaders are "spending lots of time and effort" in preparing for the campaign.

At this meeting, members of the Union Industrial section committee will explain the general objectives of the drive and discuss the plans of campaign organizations.

Regional representatives of the CIO and the A.P.O.F.L. are expected to attend the session.

Philip Murray, president of the CIO, and S. H. Dalrymple, president of the United Rubber Workers of America, already have endorsed the National War Fund.

Murray declared "organized labor, including our own National CIO War Relief Committee, recognizes the National War Fund as the instrument through which its gifts for the distressed of the world, both here at home and in allied lands, can most quickly be put to work for those needs with it is most concerned."

Avoids Duplication

"This great union of services avoids confusion of effort, needless duplication and channels labor's mighty contribution to the war and peace efforts with a minimum of fund raising expense."

Dalrymple said "I am certainly happy to endorse the outstanding work of this committee. Under the leadership of our own committee, CIO members last year contributed $20,000 to war relief purposes. I urge all our members to give generously to the current National War Fund and Community Chest campaign. We can be sure that through our own membership on the committee, labor's gifts will be used most wisely."

Yesterday, at noon, members of the Classified section, Henry W. Price, chairman, met in Central Y.M.C.A. to explain and further work out plans for the campaign. Several members of the Union Industrial section were present in order to gain a clearer idea of the work at hand.

Methodist Church Plans New Building

A permit for the demolition of the present Mapleside Methodist church's frame building on Maple street and the construction of a brick building to replace it was issued yesterday by Ralph L. Rizer, city engineer.

According to the permit, the new church to be constructed on the old foundation, will cost approximately $40,000.

The new edifice will be of one story and the dimensions are listed as twenty-five feet by fifty feet. The permit was issued without payment of a fee because of a city ordinance exempting churches from such regulations.

During the construction of the new building services of Mapleside church will be held in the auditorium of Johnson Heights school. This Sunday, church school will be held at 10 a.m. and the worship service will begin at 11 a.m.

Car Hits Boy Crossing Road from School Bus

A 6-year-old boy was admitted to Memorial hospital yesterday afternoon for treatment of injuries suffered when he was struck by an automobile as he started to cross the highway in front of a school near his home at Spring Gap.

The boy, Raymond Roby, son of Kirk Roby, suffered abrasions about his face and lacerations of his left leg. His condition is not believed to be serious.

State Trooper Graydon S. Dunlap, who investigated, said the driver of the car that hit the boy is Bruce Crites, Green Spring, W. Va. Crites is charged with failing to stop for a school bus discharging passengers and was released on bond of $50 for a hearing to be set pending the outcome of the boy's injuries.

Crites took the boy to the hospital. The accident happened about 4:30 p.m.

Pfc. James Gillam Wounded in Action

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Gillam, Route 1, Paw Paw, have been notified by the War department that their son, Pfc. James W. Gillam, was seriously wounded in Italy Sept. 20.

Pvt. Gillam entered the army May 23, 1942 and received his basic training at Camp Blodding, Fla., and Camp Edwards, Mass. He served in the North African campaign and also in Sicily and the invasion of Italy.

He is now in an army base hospital "somewhere in North Africa." His parents have received several letters from him stating that he was wounded in his right leg but that he is getting along fine.

Pvt. Gillam has two other brothers in the armed forces, Staff Sgt. Edward L. Gillam, serving in North Africa and John T. Gillam, who is with the Navy Seabees in Hawaii. Another brother Staff Sgt. Joseph E. Gillam, was honorably discharged from the army while stationed in Arkansas.

Pvt. Gillam was awarded the Good Conduct medal while serving in North Africa and has been awarded the Purple Heart since he was wounded. He is a graduate of Old Town high school in the class of '37 and before entering the army was employed at the Glen L. Martin plant in Baltimore.

Several Fathers Volunteer for Armed Forces

Survey Shows 108 Pre-Pearl Harbor Fathers Report for Induction

Although over twenty-five pre-Pearl Harbor fathers were inducted through Allegany county Selective Service boards in October, all so classified volunteered for service. Only one board is forced to call pre-Pearl Harbor fathers in November.

Local Board No. 1, Virginia avenue, announced that it was not necessary to call pre-Pearl Harbor fathers in October and that the contingent of forty registrants which left Thursday includes only fathers who have volunteered. About eight of the October quota were volunteer pre-Pearl Harbor fathers.

Local Board No. 2, Union street building, included fourteen volunteer pre-Pearl Harbor fathers in its October quota, but did not officially call such registrants. The November quota, sent to Baltimore Thursday for physical examination, did include some pre-Pearl Harbor fathers. P. Emmett Fahey, chief clerk, announced.

Local Board No. 3, Union street building, called no pre-Pearl Harbor fathers who had complied with Selective Service regulations in October, although three of the ten volunteers in the October quota were fathers. No pre-Pearl Harbor fathers who comply with regulations will be called in November, Alvin E. Yaste, chief clerk, explained.

Local Board No. 4, Frostburg, announced yesterday that ten of the eighty-one selected who left Thursday for physical examination were pre-Pearl Harbor fathers who volunteered for immediate service. The board had enough men to fill the November quota without calling pre-Pearl Harbor fathers but acceded to the wishes of the ten men who desired to join the armed services at once.

Statistics released several days ago by a Selective Service official revealed that 108 pre-Pearl Harbor fathers have reported for induction through October 30, but figures were not available on the number of men who were accepted.

TEN COMMANDMENTS OF GUN SAFETY ARE GIVEN BY LE COMPTE

With the 1943 upland game season scheduled to open at sunrise on Monday, the Maryland Game Department has released the "Ten Commandments of Gun Safety" as a means of giving nimrods the lowdown on how weapons should be properly handled.

The commandments, issued by E. Lee LeCompte, state game warden, are:

1. Treat every gun with respect due a loaded gun. This is the cardinal rule of gun safety.
2. Carry only empty guns, taken down or with the action open, into your automobile, camp and home.
3. Always be sure that the barrel and action are clear of obstructions.
4. Always carry your gun so that you can control the direction of the muzzle even if you stumble.
5. Be sure of your target before you pull the trigger.
6. Never point a gun at anything you do not want to shoot.
7. Never leave your gun unattended unless you unload it first.
8. Never climb a tree or a fence with a loaded gun.
9. Never shoot at a flat hard surface or the surface of the water.
10. Do not mix gunpowder with alcohol.

Booklet on City Will Be Available To Servicemen

Community Council Discusses Plans To Establish Lounge Here

Meeting last night in the council chambers in city hall, members of the Community Servicemen's Council of Cumberland studied contents of a pamphlet on Cumberland to be distributed to men in service who visit here and discussed further plans to establish a local center for servicemen.

Following the session, committee members said they are virtually at a standstill in their efforts to locate a headquarters for servicemen in Cumberland.

They explained that they are attempting to find a building to be used as a lounge but so far have not been able to "locate any place at all, let alone a suitable place."

Although there is a naval training school located at Bedford Springs, Pa., there is not a large enough percentage of servicemen going through the city to warrant USAO aid or the establishment of a USAO center here, committee members said, explaining that for that reason the Community Servicemen's Council was formed.

Servicemen coming through Cumberland need a place to lounge while waiting for trains, one committee member said, adding that the only place available is Central Y.M.C.A.

The second page of the pamphlet to be distributed to servicemen here explains the purpose of the booklet in a few words, pointing out that it contains interesting information about Cumberland, a list of nearby clubs and organizations open to the people serving in the armed forces of the United States, a map of the community, a list of churches, hotels, restaurants and amusements as well as several pages for notes, addresses and telephone numbers and a calendar.

Chairman of the servicemen's council is George Lyming and Mrs. Olive Workman is secretary. Other members are Miss Helen Hardinger, Capt. Robert Ball, Rabbi Aaron H. Lekowitz, the Rev. Joyce W. Russell, George McDermott, Everett R. Johnson and William Jones.

CHRISTMAS CLUB SAVINGS HERE TOTAL $261,248

The Liberty Trust Company, the Commercial Savings Bank and the Cumberland Savings Bank will distribute $261,248 to 4,960 Christmas Savings Club members on November 29, according to an announcement made yesterday. The total represents an increase of $12,298 over the $248,950 distributed last year.

The reason for the money increase despite the decline in members is explained because more persons kept up payments after starting a club than they did last year.

It is expected that the most of the quarter of million dollars will be used for Christmas buying. However, despite the money available for purchasing, many persons may not be able to buy what they want because of the shortage of consumer goods.

Two banks in Hagerstown will distribute $240,000 or about $25,000 less than last year. Savings this year for Cumberland as compared to 1942, follow:

	1942	1943
Bank	No. Amt.	No. Amt.
Commercial	1,400	$135,700
Liberty	1,751	2,860
Cumb. Sav.	607	$91,248
	Total	$248,950

Dr. Walter R. Franz, county health officer, will visit thirteen public schools next week to administer the second dose of diphtheria toxoid to the pupils.

The schedule for the week is as follows:

Monday, November 15—West Side, 1 p.m.; Centre street, 2:15 p.m.

Tuesday, November 16—Pennsylvania Avenue, 9 a.m.; Columbia street, 1 p.m.; Gephart, 2:15 p.m.

Wednesday, November 17—Virginia Avenue, 9 a.m.; Humboldt street, 10:30 a.m.

Thursday, November 18—Barton, 9:15 a.m.; Detmold, 10 a.m.; Peakin, 11 a.m.; Moscow, 11:30 a.m.

Friday, November 19—Cresaptown, 9 a.m.; Mt. Royal, 11 a.m.

Two Drivers Pay Fines On Motor Charges

Paul B. Moore, Hyndman, was fined $5 and costs yesterday after he was convicted, before Magistrate Oliver H. Bruce, Jr., in trial magistrate court, of a charge of failing to stop for a school bus.

Charges were preferred by Trooper Charles D. McLane, who arrested Moore on McMullen highway five miles south of this city Wednesday.

Garrell E. Hedrick, Route 2, paid a fine of $10 and costs after he pleaded guilty, before Magistrate Bruce, to a charge of exceeding fifty miles an hour on Route 40, three miles east of this city last Saturday. Charges were preferred by Sgt. Truman Moon.

Harold Allen Walker, Magnolia, W. Va., forfeited bond of $645 in trial magistrate court yesterday when he failed to appear for a hearing on a charge of operating without a license. He was arrested last Saturday on the U.S. highway by Sgt. Moon.

Crates took the boy to the hospital. The accident happened about 4:30 p.m.

Paper Salvage Drive Will Close Today

Townspeople Urged To Cooperate with Students in Final Efforts

W. Donald Smith, chairman of the local salvage committee and supervisor of the current paper collection campaign by local high school students, urges all residents of the sections south of Greene and Baltimore streets to be sure to have their contributions on the curbs today at 8 a.m. when the collectors will begin their rounds.

Today is the final day, Chairman Smith stated, for the pupils to win the national "Truth and Consequences" contest and bring nationwide recognition to Cumberland. He also requests that residents of outlying districts follow the deposit schedules announced in yesterday's papers.

"Tie them together, stack them together, and let's pull together," Smith states. "Three carloads have already been sent to their destinations and the local students are anxious to do their part in sending Hitler and Hiro Hito to their destinations."

Magazines, newspapers, waste paper, cardboard boxes, wrapping paper and paper bags . . . all will be collected by students today. "And after today," Chairman Smith concluded in his statement last night, "it will be unpatriotic to have one unnecessary piece of paper in any home in Cumberland."

$5,000 Damage Suit Filed Here

Suit for $5,000 damages was filed in circuit court yesterday by Charles Thomas Carney, Jr., against G. Edwin Zembower and Virle Rome Robbie for injuries allegedly received as a result of a collision of cars owned by the defendants on December 25, 1940 near Bortz's Service Station on Bedford street.

The declaration states that Zembower was driving south and Robbie was going north, both driving recklessly and negligently. They collided near the gas station and Robbie's car was thrown over on the Bortz's property and struck Carney, who was standing in the rear of his car getting gasoline.

Carney alleges that he was seriously, painfully and permanently injured from a severe laceration of his right eye and several cuts on his face, in addition to concussions and shock. He charges that his face is permanently disfigured and that the right eye injury, also permanent, caused him to lose eighty per cent of his normal vision in that eye.

RATION OFFICIALS SAY STOVE QUOTAS ARE STILL ADEQUATE

Quotas of stoves, with the exception of gas heating stoves, are still adequate, according to local rationing officials. Most plentiful of all is coal heating stoves, with 173 of the November quota still available.

Four oil heating and nine gas cooking stoves also are available. The gas cooking quota is completely exhausted.

City officials said his name will be added to the list of countians who have made the supreme sacrifice.

FATHER OF EIGHT CHILDREN DRAFTED, LEAVES NOVEMBER 23

Joseph Bedford Lloyd, father of eight children, has been drafted.

Lloyd, 30 years old and a resident of 35 Offutt street, leaves Keyser, W. Va., for the reception center at Fort Hayes, Columbus, Ohio, on November 23.

For ten years, Lloyd was employed as a trackman on the Western Maryland railway, the last six years as foreman. For the past two months he has been employed as a laborer by the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, but the draft cut short his employment with the latter company.

Lloyd applications for War Ration Book 4 are still averaging 120 a day. Books are being distributed by volunteer workers on the second floor of the Union street building.

Divisional Salvation Army officials will be at the local Salvation Army post Wednesday, November 17, for a divisional junior and senior inspection and audit, Capt. Robert S. Ball announced last night.

A special service featuring the divisional officers, who are all musicians, will be held Wednesday night at 7:45 o'clock. Capt. Ball stated. Maj. Howarth will be the principal speaker.

He appears in the picture watching the removal of victims from a Flying Fortress which crashed returning from a raid over Germany.

Sgt. Williams is a graduate of Allegany high school, and was a member of the First Presbyterian church choir and the Community choir, directed by Wallace Ashley. He was employed by Carl McIntyre prior to accepting a position in the Treasury department in Washington, D. C. After being rejected for service four times because of eye trouble, he was finally accepted about three years ago, and took his basic training at Miami, Fla., after which he was graduated from the Rising Sun Mechanic's school, Philadelphia, and returned to Miami from where he embarked for foreign service last year.

Pallbearers, all members of the Eagles Lodge, were J. Hale, Roy L. Frantz, Charles Danner, Walter Leibrant, Frank C. McKnight and C. William H. Bear. Interment was in Hyndman, Pa., cemetery.

JOHN SHAFFER RITES

Funeral services for John R. Shaffer, rear of 505 Greenway avenue, retired Baltimore and Ohio railroad conductor, were held at 2 p. m. yesterday in the Kight funeral home with the Rev. E. S. Price officiating.
